These cover section 12019.45 (b) of AB 880

Review Criteria: Applications will be reviewed based on the following criteria:

Panel will need to come up with app criteria, these are just suggestions based on AB 880

- The merit of the project and its impact on the community
- The ability of the tribe to carry out the project based on such factors as the appropriateness of the budget, the quality and clarity of the project goals and design, the resources involved, and the qualifications of the projects personnel.
- A grant shall be used to fund a specifically described purpose or project generally relating to self-governance, developing a self-determined community, and economic development in the application. Eligible purposes or projects may include, but are not limited to, development of curricula in a tribal language or culture, housing, support for compliance with the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, vocational training, community development, investments in tribal schools and colleges, support of tribal government institutions and tribal courts, nongaming economic diversification, or investment in public health, information technology, renewable energy, water conservation, cultural preservation or awareness, educational programs, or scholarships.

Application Review Process:

What Happens to your Application: Applications are initially reviewed by the TNGF Program Analyst for eligibility; eligible applications are then reviewed by the TNGF Panel to ensure it meets the guidelines/purpose. At a regular scheduled public meeting, the panel will vote to award grants

Grant Acceptance Requirements per section 12019.75 of AB 880

Grant Acceptance Requirements

By applying for a grant, each eligible tribe and each individual applying on behalf of each eligible tribe shall agree to all of the following:

- The terms and conditions the panel imposes as a condition of awarding the grant, including the limitations set forth in this section and article.
- To cooperate with the panel, advisor, commission, bureau, or other state entity designated by the Governor to ensure that the grant is used in a manner consistent with the assertions in the application and any condition or limitations imposed on the award of the grant.
- To provide access to the panel, advisor, commission, bureau, or other state entity designated by the Governor to all documents relevant to the use of the grant to allow a comprehensive audit, to ensure a grant is used for the purpose or project set forth in the application, in compliance with the conditions or limitations on the grant, and applicable tribal-state gaming compacts.
- To return to the fund any amount of a grant not encumbered or expended in compliance with Section 12019.70. Any returned funds shall be provided to the commission for deposit into the fund.
